

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this nomination. Once you have completed this nomination we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

This form is to be used by Student (Temporary) (Class TU) visa holders in Australia who wish to nominate members of their family unit to join them in Australia. It is to be used where the family unit members are applying separately from the student visa holder outside Australia.

Under the migration legislation, a person is a member of the family unit of a Student (Temporary) (Class TU) visa holder if the person is:

- a partner (including spouse or de facto partner) of the student visa holder; or
- a dependent child of the student visa holder, or of that partner, who is unmarried and has not turned 18.

AusAID or Defence sponsored students should contact AusAID or the Department of Defence for procedures. It is not necessary for you to complete this form.

How to nominate

Complete this form and send it, along with the documents you are required to provide, to your dependant(s) overseas.

Your dependant(s) should complete form 157A Application for a student visa and lodge it, together with this form 919 Nomination of student dependants and the documents you have provided, at an Australian mission overseas.

What documents do you need to provide?

- Certified or notarised copies of all pages of your passport, including the page showing your current Student (Temporary) visa and your personal details;
- an original letter from your education provider stating:
 - the course you are studying
 - the duration of that course and anticipated completion date
 - whether you are satisfying course requirements;
- evidence of funds to support your nominated dependants:
 - original bank statements for the past 6 months
 - an original letter from your financial institution confirming the status of your account for the past 6 months;
- evidence of your relationship with your nominated dependants (for example, original marriage or birth certificates);
- evidence that adequate arrangements have been made for the education in Australia of all your school aged dependants (children who are unmarried and who have turned 5 years of age, but have not yet turned 18 years of age), where the proposed period of stay is more than 3 months;
- evidence of payment of the Overseas Student Health Cover premium in favour of each nominated family unit member.

Where stated, original documents must be provided. Where copies of original documents are required, the copies must be certified copies. In Australia, a certified copy is one certified by a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Declarations or a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959.

Charges

Your dependant(s)'s completed student visa application form, together with the correct Visa Application Charge and this nomination, can be lodged at an Australian mission overseas.

The Visa Application Charge is not refundable.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time. Visa Application Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year. This may increase the cost of a visa.

You can check the Visa Application Charge with your nearest office of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) in Australia, or from form 990i Charges, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

Integrity of nomination

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and possibly your nomination being refused.

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958. The information collected will be used for assessing the eligibility of your dependant(s) for a Student (Temporary) visa to travel to and enter and/or remain in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents, and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act.

The information collected might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, superannuation, review of decisions and registration of migration agents. It will also be disclosed to any agency of the Australian Government, or of a state or territory, that is responsible for or otherwise concerned with the regulation of education providers.

The information on this form, including the results of any tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result(s) may be disclosed to relevant Australian Government state and territory health agencies.

In addition, the relevant registered education provider(s) may be told whether or not your visa has been granted. The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed. This form is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.

The department is authorised under the Migration Act 1958, in certain circumstances, to collect a range of personal identifiers including a facial image, fingerprints and a signature from non-citizens, including from visa applicants. The department requires personal identifiers to assist in assessing your identity. The department is authorised to disclose your personal identifiers and information relating to your name and other relevant biographical data to a number of agencies including law enforcement and health agencies and to other agencies who may need to check your identity with this department. Where the department obtains personal identifiers they will become part of your official record with the department.

The department is involved in international information exchanges with a number of other countries. These exchanges include the sharing of personal identifiers, including a facial image and fingerprint data collected by immigration agencies such as this department. If, as a result of this sharing between countries, there is a match with your personal identifiers, the department will disclose your biographic data and immigration history to the other agency. The purpose of such disclosure would be to determine if you are presenting to the department and the other agency under the same identity and making similar claims.

For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.
