Yeah! There were hiccups & there was tension, but thanks to all the staff members at Avenues Overseas, they have been wonderful, very helpful, very friendly, very patient & took personal interest. At the same time they are very professional in their work practises. From Mr. & Mrs. Kushwaha to even the front office staff, all of them were great. Thank you all for going through this with us, & thank you even more for the success story that was unique in itself.

According to my point of view the services of Avenues Overseas for visa file preparation are excellent. They gave me support in every way. They helped me to choose right course to build my career in right direction. Each and every staff working in this organization are very co-operative. Last but not the least Avenues Overseas is one of the leading organization for getting visa in a very easy way.
